152

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON.

THE RATAN TATA DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SCIENCE AND ADMINISTRATION.

TELEPHONE 6361 CENTRAL.
TELEGRAMS: "POLECONICS, ESTRAND."

LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE,
CLARE MARKET,
LONDON, W.C.2.

WELFARE COURSE.

Suggested Outline for a Course extending over 9 months.

I. Theoretical

A. General.	Social History (1760 to present day)	30 lectures
	Industrial History do.	30 lectures
	Social Economics	20 lectures
	Problems of Modern Industry, etc.	20 lectures
	Public Administration: Local Government	30 lectures
	Health Conditions: General and Personal Hygiene	20 lectures
B. Special	Industrial Law. Factory Acts, etc., Trade Union Practice. Factory Management and the Economics of Factory Production.	15 or 20 lectures
	Problems of Welfare Work	30 meetings of Discussion Class.

See also special course below.

C. Weekly Tuition and guidance in reading, etc.

II. Practical

1. Experience outside the Factory
   - Employment Exchanges
   - Juvenile Advisory Committees
   - Technical Institutes
   - Clubs, Cadet Corps, etc.
   - Munitions Tribunals.
   - Magistrates Courts
2. Experience inside the Factory.
   - Working of Factory Acts.
   - " " Insurance Acts
   - " " Trades Boards Act
   - " " Unemployed Workmen Act
   - " " Workmen's Compensation Act etc.
   - Canteen Management
   - First Aid

The individual tuition, the direction of reading etc., and the arrangement of the practical work for each student, will be in the hands of a specially appointed Welfare Supervisor of experience.

List of lecturers and teachers.

Professor Graham Wallas
Mr. R.H.Tawney
Dr.Knowles
Professor Urwick
Captain Greenwood (It is hoped that these will undertake the Dr.O'Donovan) Health lectures. and sundry specialists.

Welfare Supervisors engaged as special tutors:

For Men -
For Women - Miss Agatha Harrison