

CHINESE FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES (CAP)

POTENTIAL, CHALLENGES AND FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

Wednesday 16th December 2015

Venue: TW2.2.04.

Chinese has been taught worldwide for the past 15 years. With the development of the field, there has been increasing demand of teaching Chinese for Specific Purposes, such as Business Chinese.

The day conference will explore the potential, challenges and methodology issues in designing and delivering Mandarin Chinese foreign language.

For more information on how to register, please contact Michael Tavares at M.Tavares@lse.ac.uk