

CIBL Chinese Film Club

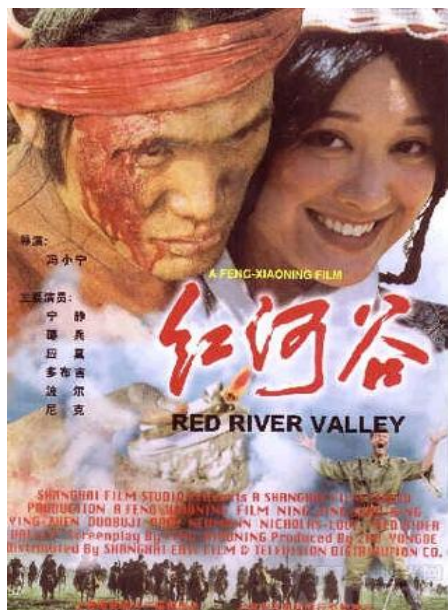

Time: 18:00 – 20:00, 24 Oct 2014

Place: CIBL office, 301, Tower 3, LSE

Dear all,

Welcome to the CIBL Film Club where we show a new Chinese movie every week!

This week we will be showing 'Red River Valley', which adapted from the Peter Fleming's best-selling novel Bayonets to Lhasa: The First Full Account of the British Invasion of Tibet in 1904.

Title: Red River Valley / Hong He Gu

Genre: Drama | History | Romance - 1997 (China)

Director: Feng Xiaoning

Stars: Jing Ning, Bing Shao, Zhen Ying

Plot overview

A young Chinese girl escapes from a religious sacrifice, and is rescued by an honourable Tibetan herdsman. The two fall in love, but problems arise when she runs into trouble with a glamorous and proud Tibetan princess. Meanwhile, a European expedition is planning to invade the sacred mountain. Facing the country's enemy, the three join the militia force to protect their homeland...

This event is free and open to all. Refreshments will be provided, so feel free to bring your friends!
