

Confucius Institute for Business London Fudan Day at the LSE

Lunchtime display

Performers: Fudan University traditional Chinese music delegation

Time: 12:00 - 13:00, 26 Oct 2015

Venue: The Shaw Library, Floor. 6, Old Building, LSE

Synopsis: The event will include a brief opening by Prof. Paul Kelly followed by a performance of traditional Chinese music. Refreshments will be provided.

Registration: Free and open to LSE staff and students only

Public Lecture

Title: China's Peaceful Rise: Challenges and Opportunities for Business

Speaker: Prof. Dingli Shen, Associate dean at Fudan University's Institute of International Studies

Time: 15:00 - 16:00, 26 Oct 2015

Venue: CLM.4.02, LSE

Chair: Nick Byrne (CIBL UK Director)

Synopsis: China's rise brings opportunities to the world with increasing import of goods and services and increasing export of tourist purchasing power. Its land and maritime Silk Road programme offers the prospect of a better connected Eurasian continent. This lecture will address the aforementioned issues and analyse China's policy contour and its regional impact, especially on its relations with neighboring countries and the United States.

Registration: Free and open to LSE staff and students only

If you would like to learn more about this event please contact Craig Meegan, c.i.meegan@lse.ac.uk.