

OXFORD, WARWICK AND LSE

WORKSHOP IN ECONOMIC HISTORY

FRIDAY 25 OCTOBER 2019

ROOM: 32L B.07 (32 LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS)

THE LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

PROGRAMME

- 9.30-10.00 Welcome, Registration and Coffee
- 10.00-11.30 Session 1 | Chair - Neil Cummins
- Mattia Bertazzini | Human Adaptation To Environmental Change
- Stephen Broadberry | Accounting For The Wealth of Nations: Recent Findings From Historical National Accounting
- 11.30-12.00 Coffee
- 12.00-1.30 Session 2 | Chair - Chris Minns
- Marta Santamaria | The Gains From Reshaping Infrastructure: Evidence From The Division Of Germany
- Amit Chaudhary | Political Change, Religious Identity, And Competition: Evidence From Human Capital Formation In India
- 1.30-2.30 Lunch
- 2.30-4.00 Session 3 | Chair - Ian Gazeley
- Sara Horrell | Malthus's Missing Women And Children: Demography And Women And Children's Remuneration In Historical Perspective, Britain 1280-1850
- Sijie Hu | Survival Of The Confucians: Male Fertility And Social Status In China, 1400-1900
- 4.00-4.30 Coffee
- 4.30-6.00 Keynote | Chair - Max Schulze
- Tracy Dennison | The Political Economy Of Serfdom: State Capacity And Institutional Change In Prussia And Russia
- 6.30 Drinks and Dinner

Department of Economic History