A DIARY OF EVENTS OPEN TO THE
LSE COMMUNITY AND THE PUBLIC

Monday 24 April – Friday 25 August 2017

Most finance professionals can drive the car...
But do they understand how the engine works?

At LSE, we believe in understanding why things work. We take you below the surface to understand the fundamentals of finance, giving you the tools to accelerate your career in a changing marketplace.

MSc Finance (Part-time)

The MSc Finance (Part-time) is LSE's most established Evening Master's programme. Taught in the evenings, it provides a unique opportunity for busy professionals to combine a full-time career with the opportunity to study a world-class MSc Finance programme that is grounded in academic depth and rigour.

Join us at an Information Evening

22 March 2017 | 24 May 2017 | 19 July 2017

Register at lse.ac.uk/finance

WELCOME

Everyone is welcome to attend LSE's public events, where some of the most influential figures in the social sciences can be heard.

Events are generally free and open to all, with entry on a first come, first served basis – unless otherwise stated. It does get busy so we advise people to turn up 20 minutes before the advertised time. For ticketed events, please go to lse.ac.uk/events and fill in the online booking form to request a ticket. LSE staff and students can obtain tickets from the Students' Union Shop. Transcripts, podcasts and videos of an increasing number of LSE events are available online at lse.ac.uk/events after the event.

If you fancy grabbing a bite to eat before an event, or you want to sit and discuss the event with friends afterwards, there are a range of LSE catering outlets on campus. To see the different venues and their opening times please visit lse.ac.uk/cateringservices.

Just economics and politics? Think again. While LSE does not teach arts or music, there is a vibrant cultural side to the School – from weekly Thursday lunchtime free music concerts in the Shaw Library and an LSE orchestra and choir with their own professional conductors, to various film, art and photographic student societies, the LSE Literary Festival and artist-in-residence projects. For more information please visit lse.ac.uk/arts.

If you would like to receive a copy of this leaflet termly, or if you would like to unsubscribe from our mailing list, please email events@lse.ac.uk or write to us at "Mailing List", LSE Events, Houghton St, London WC2A 2AE.

Alan Revel, Head of Events

A Wealth of Ideas: economics and LSE

Economics and discussions over its definition, purpose and influence are woven into the fabric of LSE. Debates over economics continue to inspire, enrage and engage those who visit the School both to learn and teach. A Wealth of Ideas draws upon LSE Library's holdings of rare books and archives demonstrating the contributions made by those who have played a role in shaping these debates.

Info: library.enquiries@lse.ac.uk or call 020 7955 7229. Visitors are welcome Monday-Friday 9am-7pm, Saturday-Sunday 11am-6pm. Please see lse.ac.uk/library/exhibitions for details.

Designing Politics

What does it mean to design for free speech? Can architects create urban commons? Is respect something that can be built into the city? This exhibition explores the outcomes of the first three ideas challenges from Theatrum Mundi, a research project linking the performing and visual arts to the politics of the built environment.

Info: arts@lse.ac.uk or call 020 7955 6043. Visitors are welcome Monday-Friday 10am-8pm. Please see lse.ac.uk/arts for details.
