

DALIA ZILEVICIUTE-MIRCHANDANI

Dual degree: School of International and Public Affairs (SIPA)

Contact: daliazilev@gmail.com

Nationality: Lithuanian

Education:

9/2004 – 5/2008

Boston University

Dual BA in Economics and International Relations

9/2009 – 6/2010

London Business School

MSc in Management

Languages:

English – Fluent

Spanish – Advanced

French – Advanced

Lithuanian – Native speaker

Russian – Beginner

IT Skills:

Stata – Intermediate

Excel – Advanced

Key academic interests:

International Development

Development Economics

International Finance

Social Enterprise

International Trade

Key extra-curricular interests:

Flamenco

World cinema

History

Wildlife

Travelling

Work Experience:

6/2015 – 8/2015

Innovations for Poverty Action (IPA)

Postgraduate Intern

Lima, Peru

- Designed and planned a randomised control evaluation to examine whether delivering persuasive and accurate information on the returns of education to students would reduce school dropout rates.

2/2015 – 5/2015

House of Commons

Parliamentary Intern

London, UK

- Worked for an MP and Minister of State for Justice and Civil Liberties; focused on parliamentary affairs and constituency issues.

9/2010 – 7/2014

KPMG Management Consulting

Senior Associate

London, UK

- Worked with numerous Fortune Global 500 companies in sectors ranging from energy, banking to insurance and with charities.