

Skills and knowledge developed on the Cities Programme include

Brief-writing
Communication
Creative and critical thinking
Design interventions
Economic analysis
Graphics, information and data visualisation
Interdisciplinary communication
Multicultural and multidisciplinary experience
Multimedia
Multi-scalar analysis
Planning analysis
Policy analysis
Presentation techniques
Problem-solving
Public speaking
Quantitative / qualitative analysis
Report and project writing
Social and spatial research methods
Teamwork
Time management
Visualising ideas
Working to deadlines / working under pressure

Where can Cities Programme graduates make a contribution?

Advocacy and campaigning
Architecture
Business location / analysis
Curating, writing and exhibiting on cities
Consultancy – public and private Consultation and engagement
Engineering
Evaluation / economic appraisal
Heritage projects
Housing implementation and management
Law
Master-planning
Mayor's offices
NGOs
Planning
Policy research, design and evaluation
Politics and urban management
Project management
Public space design and policy
Research
Retail design
Strategic planning
Think tanks
Transport planning and implementation
Urban design
Urban regeneration