

SSCR Workshop: Maximising research impact in adult social care

Thursday 4 October 2012, 10.00 – 16.00

Venue: London School of Economics and Political Science, London

Programme

10.00	Welcome and introduction
10.15 – 11.30:	Panel debate and discussion – Research impact: the key issues for social care
11.30 – 12.00:	Engaging service users and carers to maximise impact in practice Dr Sarah Carr, Social Care Institute for Excellence
12.00 – 12.45:	Lunch
12.45 – 14.15:	Knowledge exchange: ideas from practice and key lessons Dr George Julian, research in practice for adults
14.15 – 14.30:	Refreshment break
14.30 – 16.00:	Understanding and measuring research impact: the what, why and how Dr Jonathan Grant and Molly Morgan-Jones, RAND Europe
16.00:	Close

All sessions will be interactive.

The workshop is free to attend, but registration is required as places are limited. Registration is by email to sscr@lse.ac.uk.