

We are pleased to invite you to a half-day seminar on

Recent Developments in the Financing of Long-Term Care in the USA, UK, Japan and Israel

14:30-16:30, Wednesday 14th September 2011

London School of Economics and Political Science, London

The seminar is for policy-makers and researchers and focuses on recent developments in the financing of long-term care, especially around the balance of responsibility between the State and the individual.

Speakers:

Recent developments in USA

Dr. Joshua Wiener, RTI International, United States of America

Recent developments in Japan

Prof. Tsuneo Inoue, University of Doshisha, Japan

Recent developments in Israel

Dr. Shuli Brammali-Greenberg, Myers-JDC-Brookdale Institute, Israel

Recent developments in UK

Dr. Jose-Luis Fernandez, PSSRU at LSE, United Kingdom

The seminar is free to attend and will be followed by refreshments. Previous events have been oversubscribed, please register early to avoid disappointment.

For registration contact:

Vivek U Padvetnaya | ilp-network@lse.ac.uk | +44 (0) 20 7955 6617 | Map

This seminar is held under the auspices of

The AXA Research Fund Project on How can private long-term care insurance supplement state systems? The UK as a case study and International Long-term care Policy Network (ILPN) (ilpnetwork.net)