

ACT.COUNT.THINK@LSE

LSE's Department of Accounting Student Newsletter

Dear «Names»,

Message from the BSc Programme Director, Dr Pik Liew

“Welcome back. I hope you had an enjoyable break and are feeling refreshed and ready for your second year at LSE. This year the Department has organised some exciting activities and events to support both your academic and professional development starting with Second Steps taking place on 1 October in LSE Life for all second year BSc AF students and INSIGHTS lecture series on 3 October with Simon Samuel who will discuss lessons learnt from the financial crisis. We hope that you will work well and closely with your Academic Mentor, class teachers, as well as your peers to build a strong learning community. All of our initiatives, efforts and supports directly aim to provide you with a phenomenal environment where you will be intellectually and personally challenged, and can flourish and achieve academic excellence.

All the best and wishing you a great positive learning experience at our Department and LSE in 2018-19”

New Student Hub

The new student app Student Hub will be launched this coming week. It is a one-stop shop that will help you organise, collaborate and discover what is happening around LSE More

New Academic Mentoring Portal

The new Academic Mentoring Portal is designed to provide information and support to you and your relationship with your Academic Mentor (previously known as Academic Adviser) at LSE. Confirmation on who your Academic Mentor for year two will be sent to you by Friday 28 Sep More

Register your interest to be the a Second Year BSc Accounting & Finance SSLC Student Rep

Want to be one of five Student Reps for your cohort in the Staff-Student Liaison Committee this year? To Register your interest complete the application form by 5 Oct (via Moodle). The first SSLC meeting will take place on 31 Oct.

Update to your Professional Services Team

Justin Adams has taken over the role of BSc Programme Manager from Sandra Ma. Sandra remains part of the Department as the new Student Community & Operations Manager. Joining the team is Jack Heany as the Department of Accounting Administrator.

SECONDSTEPS

Working Together Well

Mon 1 Oct, 10.00-13.30

Workspace Four @LSE Life

The Second Steps workshop (with lunch included and networking time put aside) will focus on working in groups, essential for AC211 group assessment. Activities includes a psychometric based game, along with tips & techniques for working better in a group, plus a group case study activity.

The aim of the session is to bring you all under one roof, develop key team work skills and to catch up with your classmates.

Calendar appointment to follow

Timetable announcement

Individual student timetables will be published from 25 Sep.

More

INSIGHTS

Inspiring talks from leaders in the field of Accounting and Finance

The new INSIGHTS speaker series will start from Wed 3 October. Have We Learned the Right Lessons From the Financial Crisis? by Simon Samuel, founding partner of Veritum will start at 17.30 in the Old Theatre, followed by a reception in the SCR, Old Building.

CAREERS Hub

events
careers fairs
CV and interview advice job search

WELLBEING & Disability Support

well-being and disability mental health counselling

LSE LIBRARY Services

research resources collections workspace

LSESU Student Union

societies support events
advice