☐ I would like this donation to be treated as a joint gift with: _____ (insert name and year of graduation if appropriate).

Gift Aid Declaration – Making the most of your gift

Gift Aid means that for every pound you give, we get an extra 25p from HM Revenue & Customs. This means that £10 is worth £12.50 to LSE. If you want your donation to go further and you are a UK tax payer Gift Aid it. All we need is your signature and home address. If you are not a UK tax payer or do not wish to Gift Aid your donation, do not sign the agreement.

I would like to make a gift aid donation of:

☐ £10,000 ☐ £5,000 ☐ £2,500 ☐ £1,000
☐ £500 ☐ £250 ☐ £100 ☐ £50 ☐ Other: £ _____

I am a UK taxpayer and want the LSE to treat this donation and all donations I make to LSE from 06 April 2000 until I notify you otherwise as Gift Aid donations*

Signature: _____ Date: _____

* Provided they pay sufficient income tax, donors can make a gift aid declaration on their donation, enabling the LSE to claim the basic rate of tax (20%) on their gift. If you are a higher rate taxpayer, you can claim back the difference between higher and basic rate tax (currently 20%) through your year-end tax return forms. Please notify us if your circumstances change and you no longer pay tax on your income or capital gains at least equal to the tax the charity reclaims. You can cancel your gift aid declaration at any time by notifying us. In accordance with regulations set out by HM Revenue & Customs, in order to for us to claim gift aid please ensure that you have provided us with your home address.
