

CONFLICTS IN TIME

19 — 29 MARCH 2011

PRIVATE VIEW

6.30pm, Saturday 19 March

Making time visible through the work of eleven artists and in film, design, performances and workshops.

DATE

Exhibition from 19 — 29 March

PRIVATE VIEW

6.30pm, Saturday 19 March

The Mayor of Hastings, Councillor Kim Forward, will open the exhibition at 7pm

LOCATION

Hastings Arts Forum Galleries 1 & 2
36 Marina, St Leonards on Sea
East Sussex, TN38 0BU

CONTACT

For more information
T 01424 201636
E info@hastingsartsforum.co.uk
W hastingsartsforum.co.uk

EXHIBITION CURATORS

Griselda Bear

office@griselda.freemove.co.uk

Laura Bear

l.bear@lse.ac.uk

This exhibition is a joint project between Hastings Arts Forum and The London School of Economics and Political Science with funding from the Economic and Social Research Council.

Design: Why Not Associates

ARTISTS

Sue Barnes

Graphic work and living plants

Sid Beynon

Art installation created on the beach between the high tides on 19 March

Film and photographs of this and other works on view in gallery

Rose Biela

Mixed media assemblages

Lynne Bingham

Mixed media sculpture

John Hacker

Watercolour and pencil on paper

Max Lovenheim Irwin

Computer installation

Andrew Moran

Screened video presentation

Mary Morris

Mixed media paintings

Rosie O'Driscoll

Found objects and paint

John Plummer

Acrylic and vinyl emulsion on canvas

Annie Rae

Watercolour with gouache and pencil on paper and fine art prints

FILM, DESIGN, PERFORMANCES AND WORKSHOPS

Laura Bear

Four ethnographic films, 'Hooghly Soundings', from recent fieldwork in Kolkata, India on view in gallery throughout exhibition

Mary Dawson

Facilitator of workshops for families with children 5 to 10 years

Booking essential for 10 to 11am on 26 and 27 March

'Memories Over Time –
Past Present and Future'

For details and booking email rainbowmary@phonecoop.coop or telephone 01424 852668

Harry Lyons

Cultural historian exhibiting examples of timelessness of design in image and object

Julian Rumball

Performing 'Conflicts in Time' puppet show on afternoon of 26 March in gallery or on beach depending on weather

thismachine

Musicians performing 'A-Series'
in gallery on 19 March

Warrior Squares

Electro/acoustic improvisations
in gallery on 26 March