

CATALAN
OBSERVATORY

LSE

The Catalan Observatory
at the London School of Economics invites you to the Conference:

Historical Memory: Policy and Practice

A Joint Conference of the Catalan Observatory, LSE, and Memorial Democràtic, Generalitat de Catalunya.

www.lse.ac.uk/catalanobservatory

Historical Memory: Policy and Practice

Thursday 1 July 2010

FIRST SESSION

16.00 – 16.30

Paul Preston (Chair of the Catalan Observatory, London School of Economics)

Introduction and words of Welcome

16.30 – 17.15

Miquel Caminal (Director of Memorial Democràtic de Catalunya)
El Memorial Democràtic y las políticas públicas de memoria en Cataluña

17.15 – 17.30 Questions

17.30 – 18.15

Jordi Guixé (Head of Projects & Memory Spaces, Memorial Democràtic)

El Trabajo de la Memoria: Un Patrimonio Colectivo

18.15 – 18.30 Questions

18.30 – 19.15

Dacia Viejo-Rose (University of Cambridge)

Memorials: memory, myth and the right to remember

19.15 – 19.30 Questions

19.30-20.00

General Debate

With the collaboration of:

Abertis Infraestructuras S.A. • Caixa d'Estalvis i Pensions de Barcelona, "la Caixa"
Foment del Treball Nacional • Mancomunitat de Municipis de l'Àrea Metropolitana de Barcelona
Mediaproducció S.L. • Societat Econòmica Barcelonesa d'Amics del País

Friday 2 July 2010

SECOND SESSION

10.00 – 10.45

Raúl Digón (Responsable of the section Fosses del Memorial de Barcelona)

The Application of the Law of Graves in Catalonia and Spain

10.45 – 11.00 Questions

11.00-11.45

Conxita Mir (Universitat de Lleida)

La dignificación de las fosas de la represión

11.45 – 12.00 Questions

12.00 – 12.45

Angela Jackson (Cañada Blanch Centre/No Jubilem la Memòria)

Dead and Buried? Working at the grass roots to recover Spain's civil war history

12.45 – 13.00 Questions

14.30 – 15.15

Carme Molinero (Universitat de Barcelona)

Represión franquista y políticas de la memoria democráticas

15.15 – 15.30 Questions

15.30 – 16.15

Peter Anderson (London School of Economics)

Living with the Denouncers: Discrimination and exclusion after the military trials

16.15 – 16.30 Questions

16.30 – 17.00

Conclusions: Miquel Caminal & Paul Preston

Saturday 3 July 2010

Speech by Miquel Caminal at the Annual Commemoration of the International Brigades at the Embankment.

Location

London School of Economics - European Institute

Cañada Blanch Centre for Contemporary Spanish Studies

Cowdray House, Portugal Street, 1st floor,

Cañada Blanch Room J116 LONDON WC2A 2AE

Tel. +44 (0) 7 53 1412 776 - Fax + 44 (0) 207 955 6757

CATALAN
OBSERVATORY

LSE

Contact us

If you want to join the mailing list of the Catalan Observatory and be the first to receive information, please send your details (full name and e-mail) to:

catalan.observatory@lse.ac.uk

www.lse.ac.uk/catalanobservatory