

History of Postwar Social Science Workshop

December 6, 2013

London School of Economics, Lakatos Building, Room 2.06

10.00 – 10.50: The Uses of the Past in Mainstream Economics, a Bibliographical Account, 1991–2011
Yann Giraud (University of Cergy) and Pedro Duarte (University of São Paulo)

Coffee break

11.20 – 12.10: The Road from Serfdom: Economic Storytelling, the India Case, and the Rise of Neoliberalism
Nicole Sackley (University of Richmond)

12.20 – 13.10: Hans Apel, Samuelson's Economics and Academic Freedom, 1950-57
Roger Backhouse (University of Birmingham)

Lunch break

14.40 – 15.30: On Being a Human Document: Tracing a Technology of Self in Postwar Psycho-anthropological Data-gathering
Rebecca Lemov (Harvard University)

15.40 – 16.30: The Environment Built: Ecology, Social Science, and Urban Planning in the Decade of Environmentalism
Jeanne Haffner (Harvard University)

Organisers

Roger Backhouse (reb@bhouse.org.uk) and Philippe Fontaine (fontaine@ens-cachan.fr). Supported by the CNRS European Scientific Coordination Network (GDRE #711)