

Master's Programme

GLOBAL STUDIES – A EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVE

Topic and mobility track:

The Master's course in "Global Studies – A European Perspective" trains students to look at processes of globalisation in different academic ways. It combines approaches from Global History and International Studies. Cultural Studies, Area Studies, Social Sciences and other disciplines contribute to a wide ranging academic programme.

The two-years Master's course in "Global Studies – A European Perspective" is offered by six European universities, namely: Ghent University (Belgium), Leipzig University (Germany), London School of Economics and Political Science (UK), University of Roskilde (Denmark), University of Vienna (Austria) and University of Wroclaw (Poland) and six further partner universities: Dalhousie University (Canada), Fudan University (China), Jawaharlal Nehru University (India), Macquarie University (Australia), University of California at Santa Barbara (USA), University of Stellenbosch (South Africa).

Students have the chance to study for one year at one of the European partner institutions, and for the second year at a different European university. Additionally there is the opportunity to spend one semester at one of the further non-European partner universities.

Application requirements:

The Master's Course 'Global Studies' aims at excellent students with a first degree in social sciences and humanities and with an interest in issues of globalisation. The minimum application requirements are: a BA degree or a recognised equivalent from an accredited institution and excellent written and oral command of English and basic knowledge of a further foreign language.

Application files:

A filled in online application form (to be found on www.globalstudies-masters.info), proof of an excellent BA in the social sciences or humanities, a statement of purpose, curriculum vitae, language certificates and one academic reference.

Application deadline:

The application deadline is March 30st, 2017 for non-European applicants who want to qualify for the Erasmus Mundus scholarship and for admission to the programme, which starts in fall of the same year. Meeting the application deadline will be established by the date of arrival of the paper application. Application will open on February 1st, 2017.

Further information:

internet: www.globalstudies-masters.info

e-Mail: em@uni-leipzig.de youtube: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MtHXctN5fvQ>

This Master's Course is part of the EU programme for academic exchange ERASMUS MUNDUS. The programme was awarded the quality label "TOP 10 International Master's degree courses" produced in Germany by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) for its innovative concept, high-quality teaching, high degree of internationalization, comprehensive quality assurance mechanisms, excellent support service as well as convincing alumni results.

