

千年之求索

Global Histories of Economic Development: Cotton Textiles and Other Global Industries in the Early Modern Period

Fondation Les Treilles, France
20-25 March 2005

Monday 20 March

Arrival

Tuesday 21 March

Morning. Chair: Pat Hudson

09.30 – 11.00. Methodology 1

Peer Vries, 'Orientalism Inverted: or Good Reasons not to ReOrient the Economic History of the Early Modern World' (Commentator: Epstein)

11.30 – 13.00. Methodology 2

Patrick O'Brien, 'The Eurasian Divergence Debate: Some Methodological Prescriptions and Empirical Research Programmes' (Commentator: Grafe)

Afternoon. Chair: Regina Blaszczyk

15.00-16.30. Cotton 1

Giorgio Riello, 'Writing a Global History of Cotton Textiles' (Commentators: Hudson and Deng)

17.00-18.30. Cotton 2.

Sakis Gekas 'The organization of Indian textile technology before and after the European arrival' (Commentator: Tanimoto)

Wednesday 22 March

Morning. Chair: Regina Grafe

09.30 – 11.00. Cotton 3

Giorgio Riello, 'The Rise of European Calico Printing and Dyeing and the Influence of Asia in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries' (Commentator: Harte)

11.30 – 13.00. Silk

Debin Ma, 'The Great Silk Exchange: How the World was Connected or Developed' (Commentator: Harte)

Afternoon. Free.

Thursday 23 March

Morning. Chair: Pat Hudson

09.30 – 11.00. Porcelain 1

Shelagh Vainker 'Production and Trade of Porcelain in China, 1000-1500' (Commentators: Deng and Ma)

11.30 – 13.00. Porcelain 2

Regina Blaszczyk, 'Teacups for Everyone: The Global Porcelain Industry in the Early Modern Era' (Commentator: Gupta)

Afternoon. Chair: Bishnupriya Gupta

15.00 – 16.30. Cotton 3

Kent Deng, 'Cotton and the Cotton Economy in China, c. 600 - 1900 A.D' (Commentator: Zurndorfer)

17.00 – 18.30. Cotton 4

Olivier Raveux, 'The birth of the calico printing in Europe: the case of Marseilles (1648-1692)' (Commentators: Hilaire-Pérez and Minard)

Friday 24 March

Morning. Chair: Harriet Zurndorfer

09.30 – 11.00. Wool and Linen

Pat Hudson 'The limits of Wool in the 17th and 18th Centuries' (Commentator: Minard) and

Negley Harte, 'How Global was Linen in the Early Modern Period?' (Commentator: Solar)

11.30 – 13.00. Conclusion

Chaired by Larry Epstein and Harriet Zurndorfer

Afternoon. Free

Saturday 25 March

Departure

Participants

Name	Institution	Email
Regina Blaszczyk	Hagley Museum and Library, USA	reginab@Hagley.org
Kent Deng	London School of Economics, UK	k.g.deng@lse.ac.uk
Larry Epstein	London School of Economics, UK	s.r.epstein@lse.ac.uk
Saki Gekas	London School of Economics, UK	a.gekas@lse.ac.uk
Regina Grafe	Nuffield College, Oxford, UK	regina.grafe@nuffield.oxford.ac.uk
Bishnupriya Gupta	University of Warwick, UK	B.Gupta@warwick.ac.uk
Negley Harte	University College London, UK	n.harte@ucl.ac.uk
Liliane Hilaire-Pèrez	CNAM, France	Liliane.perez@wanadoo.fr
Pat Hudson	Cardiff University, UK	hudsonp@Cardiff.ac.uk
Debin Ma	National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies, Japan and LSE	d.ma1@lse.ac.uk
Philippe Minard	University of Paris-8, France	philippe.minard@ens.fr
Patrick O'Brien	London School of Economics, UK	p.o'brien@lse.ac.uk
Olivier Raveux	CNRS - UMR TELEMME, France	raveux@mmsch.univ-aix.fr
Giorgio Riello	London School of Economics, UK	g.riello@lse.ac.uk
Peter Solar	Vesalius College, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium	psolar@vub.ac.be
Masayuki Tanimoto	University of Tokyo, Japan and LSE	m.tanimoto@lse.ac.uk
Shelagh Vainker	Ashmolean Museum, UK	shelagh.vainker@ashmolean-museum.oxford.ac.uk
Peer Vries	Leiden University, The Netherlands	p.h.h.vries@let.leidenuniv.nl
Harriet Zurndorfer	Leiden University, The Netherlands	H.T.Zurndorfer@let.leidenuniv.nl