

Public Seminars Summerterm 2006

Room U203 , Tower 1, 3-5 pm

- 17th May Carlos Elias (Public Understanding of Science, LSE)
Science and Media: which relationship?
- 24th May Jason Davies (UCL, Evidence Project)
Travelling Prejudice (or: The Answer's in the Question and I've Already Made Up My Mind: the Example of Ancient Religion and Modern 'Rationality')
- 31st May Julia Mensink (LSE, Economic History Department)
Economic Statistics and Human Welfare.
The Human Development Index and its political power
- Jan Altman (Max Planck Institute for the History of Science, Berlin)
Facts or Fiction? Representation In Advanced Scientific Imaging.
- 14th June Trevor Marchand (Department of Anthropology and Sociology, SOAS)
Minaret Building & Apprenticeship in Yemen
- 21st June Barbara Perlich (Technische Universität Berlin)
Medieval brick technology: travelling competence or local innovation?
- 28th June Grant Fisher (UCL, Evidence Project)
Title to be confirmed

Please visit www.lse.ac.uk/collections/economicHistory/Research/facts/Default.htm for more information about the project .