

a project at the Department of Economic History
funded by the Leverhulme Trust and the E.S.R.C.

Michaelmas Term 2006

Public Seminars

Wednesdays 3pm - 5pm*

Room V308

11 October

Erna Fiorentini (Max Planck Institute for the History of Science)
Image and Word: Robert Hooke's Strategy of Knowledge Communication

25 October

Jon Adams (LSE)
Some Persuasive Uses of Popular Science

8 November

Richard Hamblyn (University of Nottingham)
Credible Facts: Eighteenth-century Scientific Journals and the Problem of Peer Review

22 November

Ed Ramsden (LSE)
Negotiating the "Paradox" of Intelligence and Fertility: The Controversy Over the "Facts" of IQ Increases in Britain and the United States

6 December

Rebecca Stott (Anglia Ruskin)
Transmutation in Transit: The Transmigration of Evolutionary Ideas Across Europe 1750-1850

www.lse.ac.uk/collections/economicHistory/Research/facts/Default.htm

THE LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE ■