

Katja Fuder

London School of Economics and Political Science
Houghton Street, London, WC2A 2AE, UK
K.Fuder@lse.ac.uk

Education and Academic Experience

Since 10/2011	MPhil / PhD student Economic History Department, London School of Economics and Political Science Research Topic: Industrial State Enterprises and Privatization in Germany 1945-1989
2009 – 2012	Research fellow Zentrum für Historische Grundlagen der Gegenwart (ZHGG), University of Bonn Research project „Designing Freedom – The implication of historic legacy and standardization on the regulation of the economy“, funded by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research Sub-project "The academic discussion on the role of public enterprises and of government regulation in the marketplace (1930s-1950s)"
2009	Diploma in Economics (very good) University of Bonn
2007 – 2008	Visiting Student Charles University Prague
2006	Intermediate Diploma in Economics University of Mannheim
2003	Abitur (German entrance qualification for university) Wilhelm-Gymnasium Braunschweig

Scholarships

2004 – 2009	Grant by the Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes (German National Academic Foundation)
-------------	---

Other Information

Citizenship	German
Languages	German (native speaker), English (fluent), French (good)