

Welcome!

Congratulations on your offer of a place on a BSc programme within the Department of Economics! LSE is a wonderful institution leading in the study of social sciences. With our students coming from over 133 countries we really are a global community rooted in the heart of London. LSE alumni and faculty members have been awarded 18 Nobel Prizes in economics, peace and literature. At least 34 past or present prime ministers, presidents and premiers have come from the School.

We are thrilled you will be joining us in the Department and look forward to meeting you in September. In the meantime, here's some information on your programme, ensure you keep up-to-date with our news and follow us on Instagram, Twitter or like our Facebook page.

Your Offer: what you need to do now!

Once you have received decisions from all of the institutions you have applied

Checklist

- ✓ Accept your offer of a place on UCAS Track. See Responding to Your Offer
- ✓ Organise your accommodation & financial support arrangements as soon as possible
- ✓ Read your offer letter & the Offer Guide
- ✓ Refer to the Offer Holder webpage for next steps & submitting documents to, you will need to choose which institutions and programmes you wish to make your firm and insurance choices and which offers you will be declining. You can accept your LSE offer on UCAS Track. You should carefully read your LSE offer letter and the LSE Offer Guide.

➡ Apply for your accommodation

Read page 25 of your Offer Guide. This provides you with essential advice on how to apply for accommodation. Applications for accommodation are now open.

➡ Apply for student finance

Applications for student finance are now open. Read page 20 of your Offer Guide for more information.

You are strongly advised to apply early for accommodation and financial support.

➡ Send us your documents

Read page 12 of your Offer Guide on how to submit certified copies of qualifications.

5 minute watch

Watch our LSE Economics Instagram Student Takeover! 5 students from the Department talk about life as an economics student, answer questions from perspective students and how to enjoy life in the centre of London as a student.

We look forward to welcoming you to your BSc programme, the Department and to LSE.

Professor Wouter Den Haan
Undergraduate Programme Director

Junius Olivier
First Year Tutor

Sarah Burton
Undergraduate Programme Manager

Unsubscribe / Manage email preferences