Your Offer: meeting your conditions

It is vital that you fully read the Graduate Offer Pack, which outlines the various steps that you must take before registration. Read fulfilling conditions attached to your offer & supplying required documents on page 13. For international students, also read page 17 visa advice for international students.

Any outstanding conditions and documents are displayed in your LSE for You account; be sure to submit these in good time. You will not be allowed to register unless you have submitted all documentation specified on your offer of admission and all the legal documents (e.g. appropriate ID; Visa (if applicable)) necessary for registration. Any documentation regarding your offer should be sent to the Graduate Admissions Office as early as possible.

If you haven't already done so, we encourage you to accept your offer of a place with us. Simply go to your LSE for You account and complete the offer reply form. There's a really useful checklist of what to do once you have received your offer in your graduate offer pack - do use this list, it will help you!
