All things natural

This is our last email for the academic year. We will be back again in two months' time!

Plants and plants again – a little visual taster of what's coming up in September

A green weekend activity: The RHS Hampton Court Palace Flower Show is taking place from 8 to 13 July 2014 at Hampton Court Palace.

Miriam's green beauty tip: If you are spending time outside try to wear a natural sunscreen because most of the high street sunscreens contain harmful chemicals, which can irritate the skin. The American NGO Environmental Working Group published its 2014 sunscreen guide with lots of helpful tips on how to buy better quality natural sunscreen products. For more information check out their website.

Avoid these!!!! The British consumer watchdog organisation Which? tested 15 brands of sunscreens and the above brands 3 completely failed the UVA a UVB protection test and been labelled as DO NOT BUY.

Many thanks,
