Communication with Evidence in the Lab

Speaker: Jeanne Hagenbach (Ecole Polytechnique), joint with Eduardo Perez-Richet

24 March 2016

Average Choice

Speaker: Federico Echenique (Caltech), joint with David Ahn and Kota Saito

17 March 2016

A Theorem on Bayesian Updating and Applications to Signaling Games

Speaker: Navin Kartik (Columbia), joint with Frances Xu Lee and Wing Suen

10 March 2016

Even up: Maintaining relationships

Speaker: Larry Samuelson (Yale), joint with Ennio Stacchetti

03 March 2016

Robustness and Separation in Multidimensional Screening

Speaker: Gabriel Carroll (Stanford University)

25 February 2016

Dynamic Choice with Subjective Information Constraints

Speaker: Philipp Sadowski (Duke University), joint with R.V. Krishna and D. Dillenberger

18 February 2016

Complexity, Correlation and Choice

Speaker: Andrew Ellis (Department of Economics, LSE), joint with Michele Piccione (LSE)

17 December 2015

Informational Size

Speaker: Andrew Postlewaite (University of Pennsylvania), joint with Richard P McLean

10 December 2015

Strategic Gradual Learning and Information Transmission

Speaker: Alex Frug (University Pompeu Fabra)

03 December 2015

Delegating Resource Allocations in a Multidimensional World

Speaker: Simone Galperti (University of California San Diego)

19 November 2015

First price auctions with general information structures: Implications for bidding and revenue

Speaker: Ben Brooks (University of Chicago), joint with Dirk Bergemann and Stephen Morris

12 November 2015

Coalitional Expected Utility Theory

Speaker: Efe Ok (New York University), joint with Kazuhiro Hara and Gil Riella

05 November 2015

The value of linking: Efficiency and public punishment

Speaker: Jimmy Hing Chan (Shanghai University of Finance and Economics), joint with Wenzhang Zhang

29 October 2015
