

in association with the Jean Monnet Programme

Friday 23 March

Europe's Crisis, Higher Education's Chance: Reframing the integration issue in the Europe of Knowledge

0915 Coffee

0930 Welcome: Baroness Blackstone, PC, who will chair the workshop

0940 Panel: Reframing the integration issue in higher education policy

An Economist's Perspective, Pedro Teixeira, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Economics, University of Porto, Director of CIPES

The Politics of the Possible, Anne Corbett, Visiting Fellow, European Institute, LSE

The Case for a Stronger Base in EU law, Sacha Garben, Fellow, Law Department,

LSE

1015 Questions

1030 Break

1040 Baroness Young, Chairperson

on the House of Lords inquiry into the EU contribution to the modernisation of higher education

1050 Discussants: a multidisciplinary round table

On governing knowledge, Roger King, Visiting Professor, School of Management, University of Bath and Associate, Centre for the Analysis of Risk and Regulation, LSE

From a Globalisation Perspective, Susan Robertson, Professor of the Sociology of Education, Graduate School of Education, and University of Bristol

The Social Dimension, Paola Mattei, Governing Body Fellow, St Antony's, and Department of Social Policy and Social Work, Oxford University

The Citizen Dimension, Avril Keating, Postdoctoral Research Fellow, New College, and Department of Politics and International Relations

Comment from the Commission: Peter van der Hijden, Policy Officer in the Commission DG Research and Innovation.

1145 General discussion

1230 Conclusions

Convened by Anne Corbett and Sacha Garben

Location: European Institute, Cowdray House (first floor room COW1.11), LSE

Please rsvp to Loukia Vassiliou: l.vassiliou@lse.ac.uk by Monday 19th March the latest. Places are limited.