

The Sandžak: A History attempts to demystify the enigma of this little-known part of the Western Balkans. The first detailed history of the area in the English language, the book offers an intricate yet succinct analysis of the religious, ethnic and political dynamics that shaped the Sandžak. The authors lead us through conflicting narratives to provide a comprehensive and concise history of this fascinating and complex region.

BOOK LAUNCH: “The Sandžak: A History”

Wednesday, 23 October 2013

Authors & speakers: Dr Kenneth Morrison & Elizabeth Roberts

Chair: Dr James Ker-Lindsay

Venue: Cañada Blanch Room, (COW 1.11), 1st floor, Cowdray House, LSE, London, WC2A 2AE

Date: Wednesday, 23 Oct 2013

Time: 6:00pm

Supported by: Hurst Publishers

 #LSEE_Sandzak

www.lse.ac.uk/lsee/events