

HELLENIC
OBSERVATORY
European Institute

The 13th
Hellenic
Observatory
Annual Lecture

The Greek Ombudsman and Public Administration during Challenging Times

Speaker : PROFESSOR CALLIOPE SPANOU

The Greek Ombudsman

Professor of Administrative Sciences, University of Athens

The Ombudsman will focus on the establishment 15 years ago of the Ombudsman institution in Greece, highlighting its place and role in the political-administrative system of the country. She will also present current challenges in the context of economic austerity, lack of trust in institutions as well as demands for a new relationship between citizens and the state in Greece.

Date : Monday, 25 November 2013

Time : 18:30 - 20:00

Chair : Professor Kevin Featherstone

Venue : New Theatre

LSE East Building, Houghton Street
London, WC2A 2AE

#LSE_HOspanou

This event is free and open to all with no ticket required, entry is on a first come first served basis.