

PUBLIC DEBATE

Does Greece Need a New Constitution?

Copyright 2008 Eve Anderson (eve@eveanderson.com)

Thursday 15 January, 18.30-20.00

Speakers:

Elias Dinas

Associate Professor in Comparative Politics,
Oxford University; Member of the Greek Public Policy Forum

Costas Douzinas

Professor of Law; Director of the Birkbeck Institute for the Humanities, Birkbeck University

Elias Papaioannou

Associate Professor of Economics,
London Business School

Chair:

Kevin Featherstone

Hellenic Observatory Director; Eleftherios Venizelos
Professor of Contemporary Greek Studies &
Professor of European Politics, LSE

The crisis has focused attention on how well Greece is governed. The diagnoses of the problems vary, but might a new Constitution help improve the effectiveness and responsiveness of its institutions?

This panel debate brings together speakers from a range of academic perspectives. The recent expert survey on the issue of constitutional reform in Greece conducted by the Greek Public Policy Forum (GPPF) will provide a starting point for the discussion.

#LSEConstitution

VENUE: TW1.G.01, Tower 1, LSE

This event is FREE and open to all with no ticket required. Entry on a first come first served basis.

www.lse.ac.uk/ho