

PANEL DISCUSSION

Cyprus and the Technology Transformation: Breaking ground in the new economic & social environment

Date: Monday, 16 May 2016

Time: 18.30-20.30

Venue: A.G Leventis Gallery, Nicosia

Programme

“How technology can help small, non-industrialised countries grow, evolve and compete in the globalised economy. Experiences and success stories from visionary leaders”

18.30	Hellenic Observatory Anniversary Video Screening
18.40	Introduction and Welcome Addresses
	Welcome Ismini Demades, Hellenic Observatory Manager, LSE The establishment of the LSE Alumni Association Cyprus: Reminiscences Michalis Colocassides, Former Cyprus Minister of Commerce and Industry (1972-76); LSE graduating class of 1955 Cyprus LSE Alumni Association – Strengthening ties between our members and making an impact on society Elena Constantinou, Head of Asset Management, UPM Ltd ; Board Member of the LSE Alumni Association Cyprus Welcome and Panel Introductions Kevin Featherstone, Head of the European Institute; Eleftherios Venizelos Professor of Contemporary Greek Studies & Professor of European Politics, LSE
19.05	Presentations
	Driving Economic Growth: Money, Regulation, Compliance & Technology John Karantzis, Founder and Managing Director, iSignthis Ltd Disrupt Cyprus: Changing a Mindset Michalis Stangos, Co-Founder, Industry Disruptors Game Changers

	Taking the Cyprus High Tech Team to the Premier League Zohar Shamir, CEO, Fularo Holdings Ltd.; Former Director, Viber Media Digital Revolution: Opportunity for Small Countries like Cyprus to Reinvent Themselves Andrew Tinney, Group CFO, Wargaming Q&A Session
20.30-22.00	Wine Reception, A.G Leventis Gallery

Event Sponsors

Communication Sponsor

