

LSE London
Lent Term Seminars 2005
Ec450: London Research Issues: Policy and Practice
Mondays 4:30 – 6:00, Room S.75, St Clement's Building

17 January	Michael Schabas Director Superlink Limited	Crossrail, Superlink, and the Future of London
24 January	Kath Scanlon LSE London	The Problem of Key-Worker Housing in London
31 January	Stephen Glaister Imperial College	Congestion Charging – Where Next?
7 February	Peter Hall and Kathy Pain Institute of Community Studies	POLYNET: Networked Polycentric Mega-City Regions in North West Europe
14 February	Duncan Melville Greater London Authority	London and the UK Economy
21 February	Peter Robinson IPPR	Going for Growth: Sustainable Development in the South East
28 February	Doreen Massey Open University	London: Alternative Geographical Imaginations
7 March	Martin Simmons	Effective Cross Boundary Relationships in the Wider London Region
14 March	Douglas McWilliams and Dominic Walley CEBR	Is London Still a Tiger Economy?
25 April	Liz Richardson LSE Housing/CASE Christine Whitehead LSE London	Thames Gateway: Big numbers or big mistake?

LSE London: Ian Gordon
Christine Whitehead
Tony Travers

Contact: Gill Wedlake, 020 7955 6889

All welcome: no need to book

*PLEASE DISPLAY THIS NOTICE *******