

Important information for leavers

Many of you may be wondering, or may not know, of the benefits and services available to you as LSE alumni.

Below is some information outlining how LSE Alumni Relations can support you after you graduate.

- All information regarding the transition from student to alumna/us can be found online at www.alumni.lse.ac.uk/newgraduates and in the Alumni Guide.
- In order to stay in touch and become part of the alumni network, you must register at LSE Alumni Online using a non-LSE email address. There you can keep in touch with former classmates, check upcoming alumni events, and so on. Once you graduate your Alumni ID will automatically be added.
- Your student email account and H: space will expire at the end of December so you are encouraged to save your files elsewhere.
- There are numerous LSE Alumni benefits and services. As a graduate you become part of a lifelong global network of over 142,000 members in almost 200 countries. There are regional and special interest alumni groups and numerous discounts, as well as access to LSE Careers for five years after graduation.
- To stay fully up-to-date with Alumni activity, visit LSE Alumni Online, follow LSE Alumni on Facebook and Twitter, or join the official LSE Alumni LinkedIn group.

Staying in touch with the Department of International Relations

The Department of International Relations is keen to remain in touch with you after graduation, and follow your success after LSE. We encourage all graduates to send any updates to s.wise3@lse.ac.uk.

Alternatively, you can keep up-to-date with Departmental activities by following the Department on Facebook and Twitter, and signing up to the IR Spotlight mailing list, to receive our bi-annual newsletter.
