Diploma

Students who cannot complete the Executive MSc Political Economy of Europe due to unforeseen circumstances can obtain a diploma.

This diploma is classified according to the Scheme for the Award of a Diploma, as a 3 unit programme subject to the following provisions. Students wishing to earn a diploma will have registered on the Executive MSc Political Economy of Europe programme and then cease their studies after completing courses to the value of 3.0 full units (three sessions/1.5 years). All courses count towards the diploma classification. A Pass mark of 50 must be achieved in all courses for students to achieve an overall Pass in the diploma. Assessments for each of the courses will take place at the beginning of the next teaching session. Students wishing to defer attempting one or more assessments must seek permission according to the General Academic Regulations no later than eight weeks prior to the exam date except in the case of exceptional circumstances, as set out in paragraph 38.4 of the General Academic Regulations. Students are permitted to repeat failed assessments in line with the School's General Academic Regulations and Regulations for Diplomas.

Certificate

Students who cannot complete the Executive MSc Political Economy of Europe due to unforeseen circumstances can obtain a certificate.

Students wishing to earn a certificate will have registered on the Executive MSc Political Economy of Europe programme and then cease their studies after completing courses to the value of 2.0 full units (two sessions/1 year). The certificate is classified on a Pass/Fail basis only. A Pass mark of 50 needs to be achieved in all courses for students to be eligible for the award of the certificate. Higher marks in one course cannot compensate a Fail mark in another course. Students wishing to defer attempting one or more assessments must seek permission according to the General Academic Regulations no later than eight weeks prior to the assessment date except in the case of exceptional circumstances, as set out in paragraph 38.4 of the General Academic Regulations. Students are permitted to repeat failed exams in line with the School's General Academic Regulations and Regulations for Certificates. Students who cease their studies after completing fewer than 2.0 full unit's value of courses may receive a certificate of attendance.
