

Spectrum & Embrace
The LSE Network for LGBT+ Staff & The LSE Network for BME Staff present

A Film Screening & Discussion

Lilting

WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY HONG KHAOU 轻轻摇晃

Set in contemporary London, Lilting tells the story of a Cambodian-Chinese mother mourning the untimely death of her son. Her world is suddenly disrupted by the presence of a stranger. Though they don't share a common language, a translator helps piece together the memories of a man they both loved. Lilting is a touching film about unlikely connections and the tragedies that bring us together even though we may be worlds apart.

Register here

Drinks (soft & alcoholic) and nibbles served from 5.30pm

Wednesday 6 July 2016 | 6-8pm
The Silverstone Room, Floor 7, Tower 3, LSE

