

How to access the Employers for Carers website resources

Employers for Carers website has been designed with user-friendly navigation in mind. This website guide is intended as a brief overview of the registration process and can be published to your staff intranet to inform your employees of your organisation's membership number.

All our members (and therefore all staff within our member organisations) can use their individual login details to access the website. This unlocks a full range of password-protected resources.

The website has a range of information, practical tips and resources aimed at managers/HR, line managers, champions/staff network representatives and employees who have caring responsibilities. The main sections of the new website cover; About Employers for Carers, The business case for supporting working carers, Training, Consultancy, Events, Latest news, and a member dedicated Resources section.

How to register and log-in

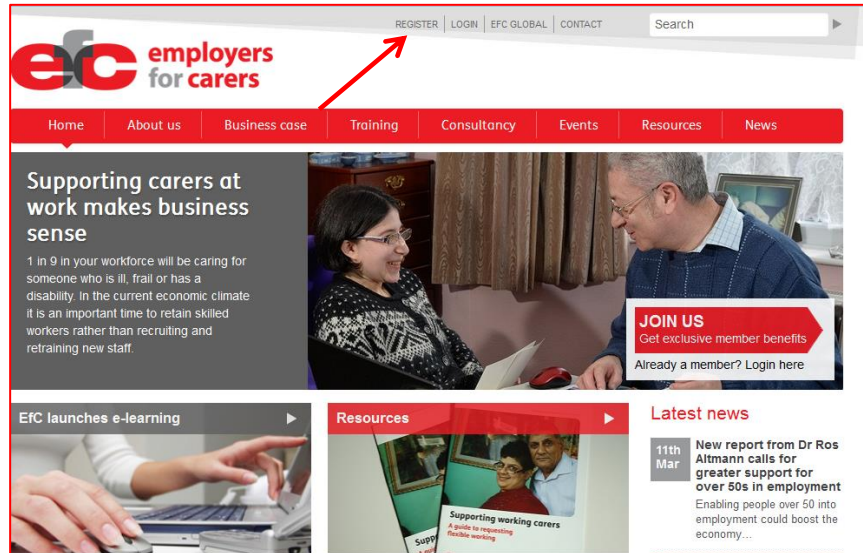

Our website address is: www.employersforcarers.org

- Your organisation is now a member of Employers for Carers and you can benefit by a wealth of resources. To be able to access our full range of resources you will need to register on the website and create your own user name and password.
- To register you will need your organisation's unique registration code. Once you provide this code, the system will recognise your organisation as a member of Employers of Carers and will allow you to sign-up on the website asking you to select your user name and password. Your organisation's unique registration code is:

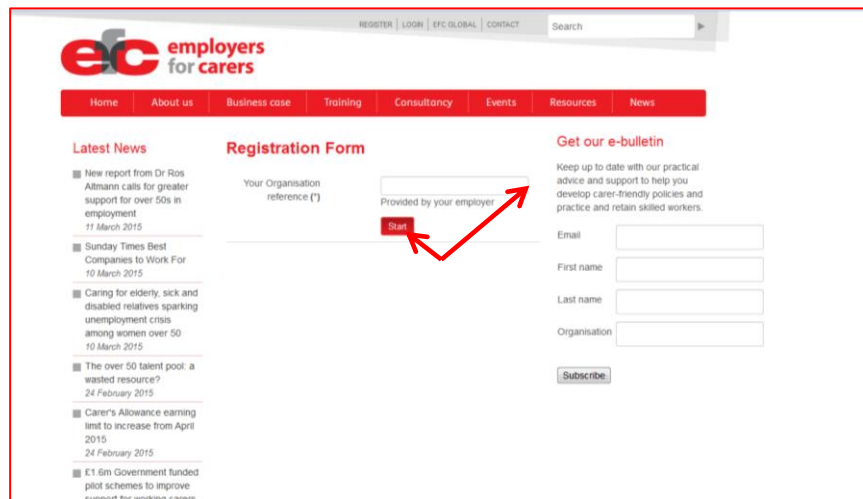

#EFC1190

Visit www.employersforcarers.org

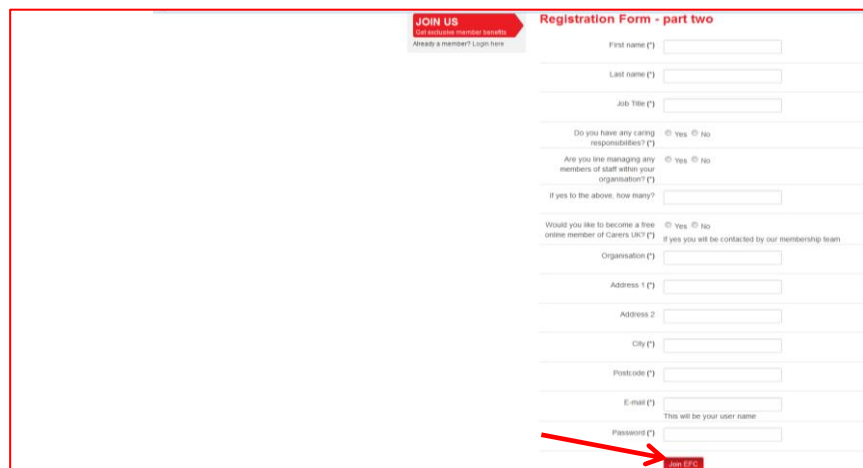

And click REGISTER on the top menu

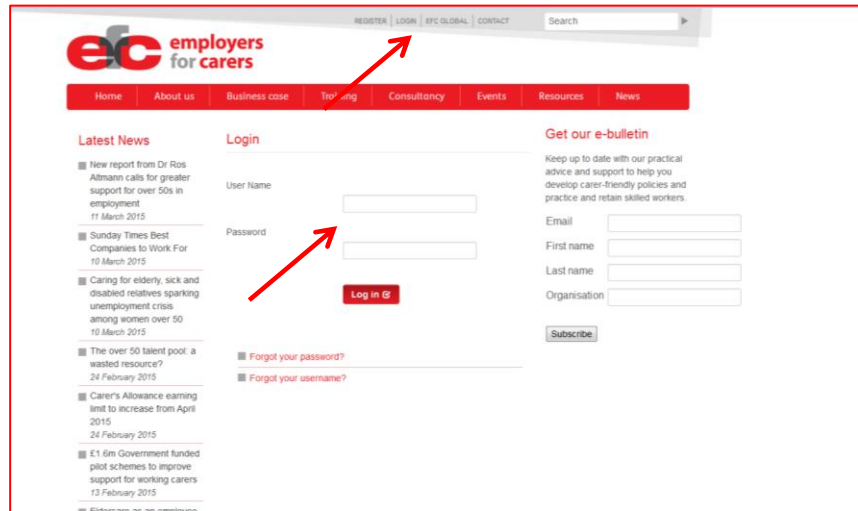

Insert your organisation's unique registration code (provided on page 1 of this guide) in the field as prompted and click Start

Complete the form and click Join EFC once you are happy with the details you provided (all (*) marked fields are mandatory).

You can now Login and access our member dedicated resources. Use your email as user name and enter your chosen password.

We do hope that you find our website content useful and informative. If you have any questions, suggestions about content or experience any problems please let us know (employers@carersuk.org).

Best wishes,
