This controversial documentary, produced by the actress Charlize Theron, is a close-up on the lives of three young rappers compelled to address their generation's future from the confines of a Cuban ghetto. Soandry, Magyori, and Mikki are the defacto leaders of Cuba's rebellious underground hip hop movement. Possessing the undeniable talent and charisma of pop icons, these fearless performers push self-expression to its sharpest, riskiest, and most triumphant point.

After the film, there will be a Q/A session. Speakers: Dr. Elvira Antón, Senior lecturer and Co-director of the Hispanic Research Centre at Roehampton University and Vladimir Smith, founder and curator of the the Festival of the Moving Image at UCL and the British-Cuban Heritage Foundation for the arts.

This event is free and open to all with no ticket required.
