

A project based in the
LSE Language Centre

Presents Spanish with English subtitles

CANCIONES PARA DESPUÉS DE UNA GUERRA

Songs for after a war, 102", 1971

Venue: D502
Clement House,
London School
of Economics and
Political Science,
London, WC2A 2AE

Date: 1 December 2009

Time: 6.30-8.30pm

In this documentary, the Spanish film director, Basilio Martín Patino, presents a collage of images, voices and songs to tell us about the Spanish Civil War, the post-war and Franco. It is an emotive and playful but implacable portrait of that period.

The film uses a complex montage technique to create new meanings, going beyond the conventions of the so called documentary cinema. It was banned by the censors for five years and was not released until 1976, after Franco's death.

After the film, there will be a panel discussion on the issues raised by the film. Speakers: Professor Helen Graham, the Spanish writer Lala Isla and Professor Paul Preston.

This event is free and open to all with no ticket required. Entry is on a first come, first served basis. For more information, email languages.spanishinmotion@lse.ac.uk

Screening organised with
the collaboration of

Spanish in motion
is funded by

Canada
Blanch Centre
for Contemporary
Spanish Studies

TRISTANA
MEDIA

LSE Widening Participation

A project based in the
LSE Language Centre

Presents Spanish with English subtitles

CANCIONES PARA DESPUÉS DE UNA GUERRA

Songs for after a war, 102", 1971

Venue: D502
Clement House,
London School
of Economics and
Political Science,
London, WC2A 2AE

Date: 1 December 2009

Time: 6.30-8.30pm

In this documentary, the Spanish film director, Basilio Martín Patino, presents a collage of images, voices and songs to tell us about the Spanish Civil War, the post-war and Franco. It is an emotive and playful but implacable portrait of that period.

The film uses a complex montage technique to create new meanings, going beyond the conventions of the so called documentary cinema. It was banned by the censors for five years and was not released until 1976, after Franco's death.

After the film, there will be a panel discussion on the issues raised by the film. Speakers: Professor Helen Graham, the Spanish writer Lala Isla and Professor Paul Preston.

This event is free and open to all with no ticket required. Entry is on a first come, first served basis. For more information, email languages.spanishinmotion@lse.ac.uk

Screening organised with
the collaboration of

Canada
Blanch Centre
for Contemporary
Spanish Studies

TRISTANA
MEDIA

Spanish in motion
is funded by

LSE Widening
Participation

A project based in the
LSE Language Centre

Presents Spanish with English subtitles

CANCIONES PARA DESPUÉS DE UNA GUERRA

Songs for after a war, 102", 1971

Venue: D502
Clement House,
London School
of Economics and
Political Science,
London, WC2A 2AE

Date: 1 December 2009

Time: 6.30-8.30pm

In this documentary, the Spanish film director, Basilio Martín Patino, presents a collage of images, voices and songs to tell us about the Spanish Civil War, the post-war and Franco. It is an emotive and playful but implacable portrait of that period.

The film uses a complex montage technique to create new meanings, going beyond the conventions of the so called documentary cinema. It was banned by the censors for five years and was not released until 1976, after Franco's death.

After the film, there will be a panel discussion on the issues raised by the film. Speakers: Professor Helen Graham, the Spanish writer Lala Isla and Professor Paul Preston.

This event is free and open to all with no ticket required. Entry is on a first come, first served basis. For more information, email languages.spanishinmotion@lse.ac.uk

Screening organised with
the collaboration of

Canada
Blanch Centre
for Contemporary
Spanish Studies

TRISTANA
MEDIA

Spanish in motion
is funded by

The LSE Annual Fund

LSE Widening Participation