16 September 2014

EU Kids Online seeks to enhance knowledge of European children’s use, risk and safety online

Released this week

- Hear from the researchers. We are proud to present a video wall of our findings regarding children’s online experiences from 32 countries and in most languages. It’s a lively way to meet our network too. You can also find these videos as a YouTube playlist.

- EU Kids Online hosted a panel at the Internet Governance Forum 2014 on ‘Researching children’s rights in a global, digital age’.

- At the Day of General Discussion on digital media and children’s rights held by the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, Sonia Livingstone presented this speech. You can read EU Kids Online’s submission to the committee here.

Recently announced

- Report: Final recommendations for policy. This brings together all EU Kids Online policy guidance and evidence-based recommendations in a single resource for policymakers. It outlines over 30 actions that children and young people, parents, educators, governments, awareness-raising and the media, as well as industry providers can take to make the internet a better and safer place for children.

- Report: Meaning of online problematic situations: results of a qualitative investigation in nine European countries. See Press release: children are influenced by sensationalist media. The report reveals a diverse set of ways in which children try to cope with online risk of harm.
• Report on children’s online experiences in socially disadvantaged families: shows that children of lower educated parents are often left alone when dealing with the internet.

• Presentation to the CEO Coalition, Brussels, comparing survey findings from 2010 to 2014

• Report: Policy influences and country clusters: a comparison of internet safety policy and implementation. This report reveals a divide between parts of Europe that enjoy better or lesser public support for internet safety.

• EU Kids Online has contributed to mapping media education policy and practice around Europe, with 29 country reports.

• Book: Towards a Better Internet for Children: Policy pillars, players and paradoxes.

• TEDx Talk: How children engage with the internet.

Further information

The EU Kids Online network is busy in its 33 countries analysing our survey results and qualitative interviews with children about the changing online environment.

Visit www.eukidsonline.net for links to all our reports and project information. Please join us on Facebook and Twitter, and email us for updates.

Do pass on this message to others interested in our work.

The EU Kids Online network

http://www.eukidsonline.net

To unsubscribe from EU Kids Online mailing list