EU Kids Online seeks to enhance knowledge of European children's use, risk and safety online

Released this week

New report: Final recommendations for policy

- Brings together all EU Kids Online policy guidance and evidence-based recommendations in a single resource for policymakers.
- Outlines over 30 actions that children and young people, parents, educators, governments, awareness-raising and the media, as well as industry providers can take to make the internet a better and safer place for children.
- Advocates a proportionate, balanced and multi-stakeholder response to risks and challenges that young people face online, while promoting positive content, children's digital rights and promotion of digital opportunities for all European young people.

This report has been released in time for the Internet Governance Forum 2014, where EU Kids Online will:

- Host a panel on Researching children's rights in a global, digital age, and;
- Participate in a pre-event: Governance in a mobile social web – finding the markers.
- Do join these panels and look us up at the Better Internet for Kids booth.
