A diary of events open to the
LSE community and the public

EXHIBITIONS, LECTURES, DEBATES, DISCUSSIONS

Most finance professionals can drive the car...

But do they understand how the engine works?

At LSE, we believe in understanding why things work. We take you below the surface to understand the fundamentals of finance, giving you the tools to accelerate your career in a changing marketplace.

MSc Finance (Part-time)

The MSc Finance (Part-time) is LSE's most established Evening Master's programme. Taught in the evenings, it provides a unique opportunity for busy professionals to combine a full-time career with the opportunity to study a world-class MSc Finance programme that is grounded in academic depth and rigour.

Join us at an Information Evening:

Welcome

Everyone is welcome to attend LSE's public events, where some of the most influential figures in the social sciences can be heard.

Events are generally free and open to all, with entry on a first come, first served basis – unless otherwise stated. It does get busy so we advise people to turn up 20 minutes before the advertised time. For ticketed events, please go to lse.ac.uk/events and fill in the online booking form to request a ticket. LSE staff and students can obtain tickets from the Students' Union Shop. Transcripts, podcasts and videos of an increasing number of LSE events are available online after the event. Details of these can be accessed at lse.ac.uk/events. Do remember that if you fancy grabbing a bite to eat before an event, or you want to sit and discuss the event with friends over a drink afterwards, there are a range of LSE catering outlets on campus. To see the different venues and their opening times please visit lse.ac.uk/cateringservices.

Just economics and politics? Think again. While LSE does not teach arts or music, there is a vibrant cultural side to the School – from weekly Thursday lunchtime free music concerts in the Shaw Library and an LSE orchestra and choir with their own professional conductors, to various film, art and photographic student societies, the LSE Literary Festival and artist-in-residence projects. For more information please visit lse.ac.uk/arts.

If you would like to receive a copy of this leaflet termly, or if you would like to unsubscribe from our mailing list, please email events@lse.ac.uk or write to us at "Mailing List", LSE Events, Houghton St, London WC2A 2AE.

Accessibility and Special Requirements

LSE aims to ensure that people have equal access to these public events.

The vast majority of venues are wheelchair accessible. Wheelchair spaces should be reserved in advance of the event.

The larger venues at LSE are fitted with infrared hearing support systems.

If you have any access requirements, eg, relating to sensory impairments, or wheelchair access, please contact events@lse.ac.uk in advance of the event you are planning to attend so that arrangements, where possible, can be made. More information on this can also be found on the LSE events website lse.ac.uk/events

Parking for disabled badge holders

Near LSE, the Westminster Blue Badge scheme operates, as do the Camden Blue and Green Badge schemes. Please see the council's own websites or visit lse.ac.uk/disabilityoffice

This information is also available on request in alternative formats.

A class of their own

Each year, a select group of people are chosen to take the TRIUM Global EMBA programme. These are successful people, but also people who know they can achieve more. They are highly knowledgeable, but they want their opinions challenged. They are independent, but appreciate the enormous value they get from their peer network.

Individually, they are uniquely positioned to shape the business world of the future. Collectively, they are a class of their own.
