

BARBARA BUCHBINDER

Dual degree: MPA with Hertie School of Governance

Nationality: Argentinian, Polish

Contact: barbibuchbinder@gmail.com

Education:

3/2005 – 10/2010

University of Buenos Aires

BSc Economics

3/2011 – 3/2012

University of San Andres

MSc Economics

Languages:

English – Fluent

Spanish – Native speaker

German – Intermediate

French – Beginner

IT Skills:

Stata – Advanced

Microsoft Office – Advanced

Academic interests:

Economics

Behavioural Economics

Development

Social Policy

Social Protection and Health

Key extra-curricular interests:

Travelling

History and Literature

Languages

Work experience:

1/2013 – 7/2015

Inter-American Development Bank

Consultant – Department of Social Protection and Health

Washington DC, United States

- Working with various datasets and econometric tools.
- Becoming familiarised with CCTs and Social Policy and Latin American Countries and refocusing programmes and redesigning incentives.
- Writing technical notes and improvement of programming skills.

10/2010 – 2/2011

Economic Development Secretariat Buenos Aires City Government

Technical Assistant and Project evaluator Buenos Aires, Argentina

- Project evaluation of the business plans of the Programmes Desarrollo Emprendedor and Buenos Aires Emprende.
- Coordination of the organizations that tutored small business entrepreneurs in the development of their business plans.
- Design, organization and coordination of the activities and conferences of the Entrepreneurs Day.

4/2016 – 8/2016

Berlin Social Science Center Intern

Berlin, Germany

- In charge of the quantitative analysis of the LATINNO Dataset on Democratic Innovations in Latin America.