

MATEO SALAZAR

---

Policy stream: MPA Public and Economic Policy

Nationality: Colombian

Contact: mateo.salazar@gmail.com

---

Education:

8/2006 – 8/2010

Universidad de los Andes

BSc Economics

8/2010 – 8/2012

Universidad de los Andes

MSc Economics

Languages:

English – Fluent

French – Fluent

German – Fluent

IT Skills:

Stata – Advanced

R – Advanced

Python – Advanced

Academic interests:

Economics

Finance

International development

---

Key extra-curricular interests:

Triathlon

Scuba diving

Skiing

Live music

Work experience:

11/2012 – 7/2015

The World Bank

Junior Professional Associate

Washington D.C.

- Core member of the Team for Statistical Development that designed the LAC Equity Lab.
- Participated in data gathering and advisory missions that involved close engagement with government agencies, private companies and local experts.
- Recipient of the LAC Vice-President Unit Spot Award for remarkable policy impact for a tax reform project in Guatemala using behavioural insights.

---

8/2010 – 9/2012

Centro de Estudios sobre Desarrollo

Económico

Consultant

Bogotá

- Responsible for modelling the Colombian energy sector and constructing the Marginal Abatement Cost Curves (MACC) of GHG emissions for the Low-carbon Development Strategy.
- I presented the results at the United Nations Climate Change Conference.
- Designed the first Colombian Nationally Appropriate Mitigation Action (NAMA): The use of electricity in the transportation sector in Bogota.