

BSPS Day Meeting

What's in a name? Names and historical population studies

13th December 2010 - Geography Department, Cambridge

10.30am	Registration and tea/coffee
11am	Welcome and introduction to 'names and personal identity' session
11.05am	Peter Kitson - Nonconformity, record linkage, and industrialisation: birth registration practices in Sedgley (Staffordshire), c.1780-1837
11.40am	Gill Newton - Using names to distinguish between individuals in early modern urban populations
12.15pm	Eilidh Garrett & Chris Galley - Same-name siblings and British historical demography
1pm	Lunch break (lunch not provided)*
2pm	Introduction to 'names and geo-social identity' session
2.05pm	Malcolm Smith - Sectarian association with forenames and surnames in Belfast at the 1901 census
2.40pm	Paul Longley, Pablo Mateos & James Cheshire - The geo-genealogy of British family names
3.15pm	Mark Jobling & Turi King - Surnames, Y chromosomes and British population history
4pm	Close

This day meeting is free and open to all. Please pre-register for the meeting by emailing Alice Reid: amr1001@cam.ac.uk.

*As there is nowhere reasonably near to buy lunch, we will arrange to buy sandwiches from M&S at participants' own expense (please choose and pay at registration). Participants are also welcome to bring their own lunch with them.

Please note that the venue is the Geography Department, Cambridge – for travel information see <http://www.geog.cam.ac.uk/contacts/directions/>