

BSPS membership data base update and request to include your details on the proposed BSPS online register of members

The BSPS website is soon to be redesigned and will incorporate an online register of members and their interests and specialised areas of knowledge in the population studies field. The area of the site that contains the members' register will be password protected. All members are being asked for their permission to include their details in this online register, and are being given this opportunity to update their interests/specialisations. Please complete this form and return to the BSPS Secretariat as soon as possible. To be sure that we have your permission to include your details on the register, please return a signed copy. Details given on this form will form the basis of the online register, so please give only those details which you are happy to have made available online to other members. Please complete clearly!

Name & title _____

Institution _____

Address for Correspondence _____

Tel: _____ Fax: _____

Email: _____

Website address (will appear as link): _____

Please give a few words/phrases that describe your main areas of interest e.g. 'evolutionary demography, sub-Saharan Africa' or 'economic demography, family policy' (maximum of 3)

Student members only:

Course title _____

Institution _____

I give permission for the details given on this form to be included in the BSPS online members' register, which will be available to any other member who visits the website. I understand that I have the right to withdraw my consent at any time, by contacting the BSPS at the address below:

Signed.....Date.....

The BSPS is a Registered Charity No. 266161
British Society for Population Studies, c/o Population Investigation Committee,
PS201, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, London, WC2A 2AE, UK
Enquiries: pic@lse.ac.uk <http://www.lse.ac.uk/Depts/bsps/>