

THE POPULATION INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE

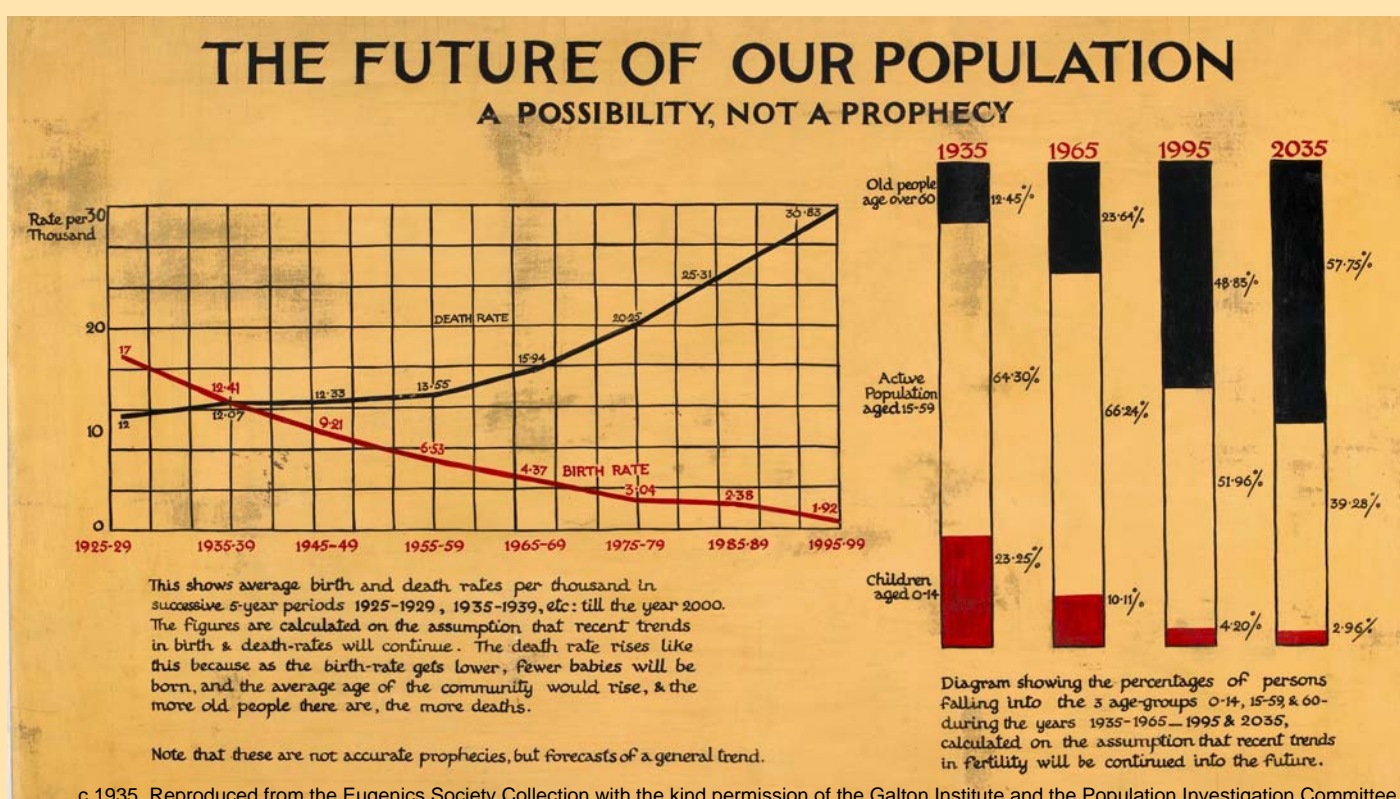

Its history and influence over the last 75 years

An afternoon symposium to celebrate the launch of the historical archives of the Population Investigation Committee at the Wellcome Library.

Friday 18 February 2011, 14:00-18:30

Wellcome Collection Conference Centre, 183 Euston Road, London, NW1 2BE

Attendance is free and open to all but advance registration is required as places are limited.
Please register by emailing t.hardy@wellcome.ac.uk.

Speakers:

Dr Edmund Ramsden (University of Exeter): The history & origins of the PIC

Christopher Langford (London School of Economics and Political Science): David Glass and the PIC

Prof. Michael Wadsworth (MRC Unit for Life Long Health and Ageing): Setting up the 1946 national Birth Cohort Study

Prof. Ian Deary (University of Edinburgh): The Scottish Mental Surveys of 1932 and 1947

Prof. Richard Smith (University of Cambridge): Revisiting the Demography of the British Peerage

Dr Lesley Hall (Wellcome Library): Placing the PIC in the context of the archival record

Followed by questions and discussion

For further information see <http://www.lse.ac.uk/collections/PIC/>.

