

Curriculum Vitae for Malcolm Torry

1980–2014	various posts in the Church of England’s ministry
2001–	Director of the Citizen’s Income Trust
2011–12, 2013–	Visiting Senior Fellow, Social Policy Department, London School of Economics

Current research interests:

- The reform of the benefits system, and particularly the desirability and feasibility of increased coverage of unconditional and nonwithdrawable benefits;
- the characteristics and management of religious and faith-based organisations;
- metaphysics

Publications

‘Two Kinds of Ambiguity’, King's Theological Review, vol.III, no.1, Spring 1980, pp.24-28.

Basic Income for All (Grove Ethical Studies, Grove Books Ltd., 1988).

‘On Completing the Apologetic Spectrum’, Theology, vol.CIII, no.812, March/April 2000, pp.108-115

‘A Christian Social Policy for Today’, Crucible, October-December 2000, pp.214-217.

(with Margaret Harris) Managing Religious and Faith-Based Organisations: A Guide to the Literature (Aston Business School, 2000)

‘Action, Patterns and Religious Pluralism’, Theology, vol.CVI, no.830, March/April 2003, pp.107-118.

The Sermons of John Boys Smith: Theologian of Integrity (edited and with an introduction) (St. John’s College, Cambridge / Aquila Press, Cambridge, 2003)

‘A Neglected Theologian: John Sandwith Boys Smith’, Theology, vol.CVII, no.836, March/April 2004, pp.89-104

(ed.) The Parish: People, Place and Ministry: A Theological and Practical Exploration (Canterbury Press, Norwich, 2004)

Managing God’s Business: Religious and Faith-based Organizations and their Management (Ashgate, Aldershot, 2005)

(ed.), Diverse Gifts: Forms of ministry in the Church of England (Canterbury Press, Norwich, April 2006)

(ed., with Jeffrey Heskins) Ordained Local Ministry: A new shape for the Church’s ministry (Canterbury Press, Norwich, May 2006)

‘Testing Torry’s model’, Theology, vol.CIX, no.851, September/October 2006, pp.343-352

(ed.), Regeneration and Renewal: New and changing communities and the Church (Canterbury Press, Norwich, June 2007)

‘“Logic” and “Action”’: two new readings of the New Testament’, Theology, vol.CXI, no.860, March/April 2008, pp.93-101

(ed., with Sarah Thorley) Together and Different: Christians engaging with people of other faiths (Canterbury Press, Norwich, 2008)

‘Voluntary, Religious and Faith-Based Organizations: Some Important Distinctions’, Words in Action: Finding the right words, The Institute Series, no.11, Heythrop Institute for Religion, Ethics and Public Life, London, 2008, pp.13-26

‘On Building a New Christendom: Lessons from South London Parishes’, Theology, vol.CXII, no.870, November/December 2009, pp.435-443

Bridgebuilders: Workplace Chaplaincy – a history (Canterbury Press, Norwich, 2010)

(with Colin Rochester) ‘Faith-based Organizations and Hybridity: A Special Case?’ in David Billis (ed.), Hybrid Organizations and the Third Sector: Challenges for Practice, Theory and Policy (Palgrave Macmillan, London, 2010), pp.114-133

‘Is there a faith sector?’ Voluntary Sector Review, vol.3, no.1, March 2012, pp.111-117

‘The United Kingdom: Only for Children?’ pp 235-263 in Richard Caputo, Basic Income Guarantee and Politics: International Experiences and Perspectives on the Viability of Income Guarantee (Palgrave Macmillan, London, 2012)

Money for Everyone: Why we need a Citizen’s Income (Policy Press, Bristol, 2013)

‘Crime and justice: criteria for a social security system’, Criminal Justice Matters, vol.94, no.1, December 2013, pp 28-29

Managing Religion: The Management of Christian Religious and Faith-based Organisations (two volumes, Palgrave Macmillan, London, 2014)

Research note: A feasible way to implement a Citizen’s Income, Institute to Social and Economic Research Working Paper EM17/14, Institute for Social and Economic Research, University of Essex, Colchester, September 2014, www.iser.essex.ac.uk/research/publications/working-papers/euromod/em17-14

Two feasible ways to implement a revenue neutral Citizen’s Income scheme, Institute for Social and Economic Research Working Paper EM6/15, Institute for Social and Economic Research, University of Essex, Colchester, April 2015, www.iser.essex.ac.uk/research/publications/working-papers/euromod/em6-15

101 Reasons for a Citizen’s Income: Arguments for giving everyone some money (Policy Press, Bristol, 2015)

‘Religion and Social (Dis)advantage’, in Hartley Dean and Lucinda Platt (eds) Understanding Social (Dis)advantage (Oxford University Press, Oxford, forthcoming, 2016)

‘Primary care, the necessary hub of the NHS: explorations in economics and ethics’ (provisional title), in John Spicer (ed.) Handbook of Primary Care Ethics (Radcliffe, Oxford, forthcoming, 2016)

The Feasibility of a Citizen’s Income (Palgrave Macmillan, New York, forthcoming, 2016)

Dissertations

M.Th.: ‘The Concept of Revelation in the Thought of Rudolf Bultmann’ (London University, 1979).

Ph.D.: ‘The Practice and Theology of the South London Industrial Mission’ (London University, 1990).

M.Sc.: ‘The Labour Market, the Family, and Social Security Reform’ (London School of Economics, 1996).

The Citizen’s Income Newsletter: numerous articles, editorials, book reviews, etc.

Degrees

B.A. (1976), M.A. (1980), Cambridge University (Part I, mathematics, first class; part II, theological and religious studies, upper second class)

B.D. (1978), London University (external) (upper second class)

M.Th. (1979), London University (King's College, London) (twentieth century Christian doctrine)

Certificate in Theology (1980), University of Durham

Ph.D. (1990), London University (external) (The practice and theology of the South London Industrial Mission)

M.Sc. (1996), London University (London School of Economics) (Social policy and administration)

B.A. (2001), London University (external) (philosophy, upper second class)

B.Sc. (2010), London University (external) (economics and management, lower second class)