

Richard Sennett: The Sociology of Public Life

A conference on the themes explored in Richard Sennett's writing and their implications today

Date: 14th May 2010

Venue: Sheikh Zayed Theatre, New Academic Building (NAB), LSE.

- 2.30pm 1st panel: Public Life and Public Policy
- Panelists: Craig Calhoun, Bruno Latour, Alan Rusbridger,
 Judy Wajcman
 Chair: Anthony Giddens
- 3.45 pm Interval. Tea and coffee served outside the lecture theatre.
- 4.30 pm 2nd panel: Cities and the Public Realm
- Panelists: David Adjaye, Geoff Mulgan, Richard Rogers,
 Polly Toynbee
 Chair: Ricky Burdett
- 5.45 pm Wine and soft drinks served outside the lecture theatre.
- Conference closes.
- 6.30 pm LSE public lecture: 'On Narrative and Ritual'
- Speakers: Richard Sennett, Archbishop Rowan Williams
 Chair: Howard Davies

The lecture will end at around 8pm.

Please email Sociology.events@lse.ac.uk to book for the conference. Tickets for the lecture will be available nearer the time from LSE Public Events.

The speakers are confirmed subject to any last minute changes due to unavoidable circumstances.

www2.lse.ac.uk/sociology/Home.aspx