

Offer Holder News April 2024

Dear ,

Welcome to our April newsletter, which focuses on the LSE Library and the Language Centre.

We're busily working through any documents you've been sending in, to meet conditions, or to verify your qualifications, but we'd love for as many of you as possible to send them before the summer rush if you can. It helps us and you to get your offer confirmed as quickly as possible.

The Graduate Applicant Portal will keep you up to date with the progress of your application and the processing of anything else you have submitted. When you send your documents, make sure you check our current processing times, so you have an idea of how long it may be before you hear from us.

Don't forget, offer holders can contact Graduate Admissions via Livechat when we are online by logging into the Graduate Applicant Portal. This is ideal when you have a quick query or you need clarification. You will also find the vast majority of queries are answered on the Knowledge base, or on the LSE website. If you have a general query, you can also call our Admission triage line - our colleagues there can give general advice on the admissions process, and signpost you to other teams around the school. Find all the necessary details on our contact page.

We hope that you enjoy this month's issue, and look forward to welcoming you later this year.

Kind regards,

Graduate Admissions Office

If you have applied for an eligible programme, but haven't yet submitted your application for Financial Support, please do so now. The deadline to submit this is the 26th April. The application is used to consider you for our Graduate Support Scheme but also for our merit based named awards. Please use the big red button below to go to your Graduate Applicant Portal (GAP) and complete the form.

Complete your Graduate Financial Support Application DEADLINE 26th April

The LSE Library

More than any other building on campus, the Library will play a central role in your studies.

Not just a book collection or a place to study, the Library offers a wide range of services and training. The Library is open to staff and students 24 hours during the Lent and Summer terms.

Find out about the Library's resources, such as ebooks, databases, news and more.

When you get to campus, the LSE Library features colour-coded study zones, to help match your individual style of study:

- Group zone (green): suitable for group work and discussion at a moderate level. Quiet, non-disruptive phone usage is allowed.
- Silent zone (red); suitable for silent study only. Mobile phone conversation is not allowed.

You can book study spaces for silent or group study.

You can also meet with your Librarian if you need any help using the Library resources, including finding the resources on your

Quick Links

Graduate Admissions

Offer Pack

Term dates

Graduate Applicant Portal \(GAP\)

Knowledgebase

Top 10 Topics of the Week

Careers

Graduate Destinations

LSESU

CMA

Programme and course information

Programme and course information UPDATES

reading list, finding data and other specialist information, and citing and referencing enquiries.

LSE LIFE

One of the most exciting features of the Library is LSE LIFE. We will be featuring LSE LIFE fully in a special newsletter later in the cycle, but for now, do feel free to take a look around their website, to see what they have on offer. How about listening to some of their podcasts?

LSE LIFE is a place where you can come to learn more about yourself, your studies and your goals. We offer a plethora of workshops and other unique events where you can learn more about the skills and personal interests you choose to explore. We offer one-to-one sessions to help you discover your strengths, develop yours skills and bring them together to reach your goals.

LSE LIFE can support you while you write essays and assignments, prepare for exams, and conduct your research.

Why not take 10 minutes to watch this video, and find out all that LSE LIFE has to offer

LSE Language Centre

The LSE Language Centre offers a range of courses in both English and foreign languages.

These courses are taught by expert teachers with a background in one of LSE's academic subjects, and are available in various lengths.

Notes and dates for the Diary

Pre-CAS and CAS

We will begin to prepare Pre-CAS emails during May. If you need a CAS you'll receive our Visa special in early May which will explain the process and timeline.

News from around LSE

LSE top in London for Social Science and Management subjects

LSE has been ranked the top university in London and sixth in the world for Social Science and Management subjects in the QS World University Rankings by Subject 2024 published this week.

Blog post of the month:

Greece: the 2024 European Parliament elections - a purely domestic affair?

LSE Events:

Three Nobel Prize winners to speak at LSE Events

Professor Joseph E Stiglitz returns to LSE to speak about his forthcoming book on Tuesday 30 April.

The Language Centre will be on hand to give you advice and support throughout your time at LSE. This in-sessional EAP support is free and starts as soon as your main course does, continuing through the Michaelmas and Lent terms. The in-sessional courses cover speaking, reading and listening as well as writing skills, and are specific to your subject area. They are designed specifically to support your study at LSE.

The Centre also offers a range of courses in foreign languages, running throughout the year, as well as additional services including proofreading, translation and private tuition.

You can find the full range of courses as well as information on registration on the Language Centre website.

Experience LSE Online

There are lots of online resources to help you to get to know us before you arrive. Click here to take a look at our virtual Graduate Open Day for a glimpse into what you can look forward to.

On Thursday 2 May, in back-to-back events, Professor Claudia Goldin delivers the first of two Economica-Coase lectures and Professor Esther Duflo speaks about climate inequality.

Featured Research:

Clear link between CEOs who express humanity and company share prices: New study

All Rights Reserved. © Copyright 2024.

London School of Economics and Political Science

Houghton Street

London WC2A 2AE

www.lse.ac.uk

+44 (0)20 7955 6613