

Section B2

- Complete section B2 if you have applied for the following courses:
 - BSc Accounting and Finance (NN34)
 - BA Social Anthropology (L601)
 - BSc Social Anthropology (L603)
 - BSc Anthropology and Law (ML16)
 - BSc Economic History (V300)
 - BA Geography (L702)
 - BSc Environment and Development (FK84)
 - BSc Government (L230)
 - BSc Government and History (LV21)
 - BSc Politics and Philosophy (LV25)
 - BA History (V146)
 - BSc International Relations and History (VL12)
 - BSc International Relations (L250)
 - LLB Law (M100)
 - BSc Philosophy, Logic and Scientific Method (V503)
 - BSc Social Policy (L400)
 - BSc Social Policy and Criminology (LM42)
 - BSc Social Policy with Government (LL42)
 - BSc Social Policy and Sociology (LL34)
 - BSc Sociology (L301)

- The marks achieved in this section account for 50% of your final exam result

Instructions:

Write ONE essay from the following three choices:
--

1. In a democracy, should press freedom be absolute?
2. What role should universities play in society?
3. 'The policy of austerity is working. As well as reducing massive debt burdens, it is shrinking the size of the state and thereby foreshadowing a new era in which business will flourish without excessive red tape or overly burdensome taxes.' Discuss.