Disability, special needs or medical condition codes

LSE aims to create an environment which enables all students to participate fully in university life.

To help us make any reasonable adjustments which may be necessary, please use the following codes to indicate your specific needs.

You may arrange to visit the School and meet the Adviser to Disabled Students, or make contact by email at an early stage, to discuss this further: Disability-Dyslexia@lse.ac.uk

Please tick the appropriate box

Declaration of criminal conviction

To help LSE reduce the risk of harm or injury to our students caused by the criminal behaviour of other students, we must know about any relevant criminal convictions that an applicant has. Relevant criminal convictions are only those convictions for offences against the person, whether of a violent or a sexual nature, and convictions for offences involving unlawfully supplying controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking. Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them. For further information about this subject see the Graduate Admissions website – lse.ac.uk/study/graduate/applicant/criminalConvictions.aspx.

Please note that consideration of criminal convictions is separate to the assessment of your academic suitability.

Have you had a criminal conviction?

Guidelines for Erasmus applicants

This application form will be used by the London School of Economics and Political Science to process your application to study as an Erasmus student. Only students whose home university holds a current bi-lateral exchange agreement with LSE are eligible to apply. Your request to study at the School must comply fully with the terms of this agreement. If you are unsure as to whether your application does this, please speak to the Erasmus Coordinator at your home institution.

Please ensure that you complete all sections of the form and have provided a valid email address, as this is primarily how we will contact you.

Upon completion, the form should be returned to the address given below. Once the application has been processed, an email confirming your place at the School will be issued, usually within a month of receipt. Please ensure you have received this email before committing to attend the School.

Please note that you will be able to study a maximum of four courses during your time at LSE.

If you have any queries, please contact us at erasmus@lse.ac.uk.
