

Annual Year 12 Politics Conference
AMERICAN POLITICS ON THE EVE
 OF THE 2016 ELECTIONS

Thursday 16 June 2016

Draft Programme

Time	Session
09:15 – 09:55	Registration
10:00	Welcome and your vote Professor John Sidel
10:15	Panel discussion A: Implications for US Foreign Policy The Next U.S. President and the Middle East: No, We Cannot Professor Fawaz Gerges What Should the US Do About China: Engage, Balance, or Contain? Professor William Callahan
11:15	Break
11:30	Panel discussion B: Domestic Implications 2016: Causes and Effects in Middle America Professor Cheryl Schonhardt-Bailey The Election and Fiscal Policy Professor David Woodruff The Presidential Election 2016: A Chance for American Women? Mona Morgan-Collins
12:30	Lunch
13:20	Admissions talk: Applying for an International Relations and related degrees at LSE Liz King, Undergraduate Admissions Specialist
14:00	Pre-allocated seminar sessions following conference theme
14:50	Q&A on studying at LSE Student ambassadors
15:15	Your vote Professor John Sidel
15:30	Evaluations
15:45	Conference close
15:45 – 16:30	Optional campus tour Student ambassadors